▣ Ethics

Ethical standards and commitment to the interests of the taxpayer one represents are key elements of professionalism. Are these elements in conflict with each other? The question impacts taxpayers on a daily basis. In some contexts the answers are clear-cut. In others they are grayer in nature. Most will vary in the eye of the beholder. This session will address the critical importance of ethics to professionalism, and its relationship to one's responsibility to the taxpayer.

BREAKOUT GROUPS

Registrants will be divided into six groups where they will remain throughout the week. Each group will rotate through the breakout sessions on a schedule that will be posted at registration. Each breakout session will focus on specific matters discussed in the general session.

TESTING/HOMEWORK

A quiz will be given during the week, with a final examination on Friday. A passing score must be realized on the examination for successful completion of the school. The final examination must be taken on Friday morning, so travel arrangements should be made accordingly. No exceptions can be made to taking the examination at the stated time on Friday.

SCHOOL II FOCUS

The school is intended for those individuals who have already successfully attended School I or who have successfully challenged it (this is a requirement). Instructional level at this school is geared towards those individuals with more than four years of sales tax experience. "Sales and Use Tax School I - Introduction To Sales and Use Taxes," that will be offered in February 2008, is introductory in nature. Both School I and II are directed at the professional development of the IPT membership, as well as supporting the Professional Designation Program of the Institute.

CMI DESIGNATION

The Institute for Professionals in Taxation's designation "Certified Member of the Institute" (CMI) is available to anyone who has been a sales tax member of the Institute in good standing for at least one year and who meets all other requirements. The purpose of the certification program is to further the professional development of its members. For further information, please contact the IPT Office.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

The Institute for Professionals in Taxation is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State Boards of Accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be addressed to the:

National Registry of CPE Sponsors

150 Fourth Avenue North
Suite 700
Nashville, TN 37219-2417
Web site: www.nasba.org

Thirty-seven (37) continuing education credit are available for attendance. In accordance with the standards of the National registry of CPE Sponsors, CPE credits have been granted based on a 50-minute hour. CMIs will obtain hour-for-hour continuing education credits for attendance upon submittal of the appropriate continuing education form.

Registrants who wish to obtain credit from other organizations for the school may have their particular forms signed by the IPT staff. The Institute provides a standardized continuing education credit form for other organizations.
